And she captures Leo's heart with just one smile. STARGIRL is a classic of our time that celebrates being true to ourselves and the thrill of first love. A life-changing read that touches souls of all ages. In the Hereafter, every person will be rewarded for his most minor offense, and no one will be left un-rewarded for a good, and unpunished for an evil done by him. Allah says: "But man desires to persist in his evil ways." In this brief sentence, the real disease of the deniers of the Hereafter has been clearly diagnosed. What makes them deny the Hereafter is not their regarding the Resurrection and Hereafter as impossible. However, they deny it, because acceptance of the Hereafter, imposes certain moral restrictions on them, which they detest. They desire to continue roaming, the world at will, as they had been roaming before. They want full freedom to go on committing whatever injustice, dishonesty, sin and wickedness that they had been committing before, and there should be no deterrent to obstruct their freedom and to warn them, that one day they will have to appear, and render an account of their deeds before their God. Therefore, it is not their intellect, which is hindering them from believing in the Hereafter, but their desires of the self. Preached at Enfield, Connecticut on July 8, 1741, this is perhaps the greatest sermon ever preached in America—and is certainly among the most well known. Owing to its forthright dealing with God’s wrath and His intense hatred of sin and the sinner, it is also one of the most controversial. Indeed, for more than three-quarters of the sermon Edwards lays down a relentless stream of the most vivid and horrifying descriptions of the danger facing unregenerate men. While it is difficult to read such graphic language, there is abundant hope in the sermon’s conclusion. Edwards puts it this way, “And now you have an extraordinary opportunity, a day wherein Christ has thrown the door of mercy wide open and stands calling and crying with a loud voice to poor sinners.” While those who would rather ignore God’s justice in favor of His mercy condemn Edwards and his sermon, those who were present and actually heard him preach that day reacted in a decidedly different manner. According to the diary of Reverend Stephen Williams who attended the sermon, “Before the sermon was done there was a great moaning and crying through the whole House, ‘what shall I do to be saved; oh, I am going to hell, etc.’” The diary goes on to indicate that Edwards had to interrupt his sermon and come down to minister to those who were under such awful conviction. And so, in spite of what the scoffers might think or say, “the amazing and astonishing power of God” was manifested among the people that day—with many falling not into the hands of an angry God, but into the arms of a mighty Savior. The Morning & Evening
